REV. J. P. SCRUGGS.

He Accepts a Call From the Midway Baptist Church.

Last Wednesday evening Rev. J. P. Scruggs tendered his resignation as pastor of the Columbia Baptist church to take effect June 1st, of this year. This action was due to a call made by the Baptist Church, of Midway, which Mr. Scruggs felt was best for him to accept as he could give his entire time to the one church instead of three, as he must do here. In notifying the church of his intention to withdraw from the work here and to accept the call from the Midway Church, Mr. Scruggs showed that he regretted to leave his work at this place, although he felt justifiable in making the change. The announcement of the change came as a great surprise to nearly every member of the church, and in truth is deeply regretted. Under his pastorate good will and brotherly love prevails to a remarkable degree and the future seems laden with a continuation of good. For nearly three years Brother Scruggs has preached to the people of this section, and has been faithful in all his pastoral work. As an able, faithful minister and pastor he stands well in the front rank and his departure is not only regretted by the members of his church, but extends to the entire people of our town, who prize him highly for his abilities and his manly, Christian virtues so faithfully and persistently lived.

The church at Midway, in one of the wealthy towns of Central Kentucky, has made a wise selection and while we deeply regret his leaving, yet we feel proud of the fact that he and his accomplished wife, so highly prized in our church work and in our entire community, carry with them the love and good will of our people and will in a short while be likewise engrafted into the full confidence and esteem of the church and people of their new location.

OPEN FOR BUSINESS.

Last week just as we were ready to start our press we were informed that the Citizen's Bank, of this city, had thrown open its doors and was ready for business. Only a few words announcing that fact, could be made at that time, and since such an institution tends to the developing of more business for Columbia, and since all the parties connected with it are men of the strictest integrity, we feel that a more extended mention should be made, and which we feel justly due them in keeping up the policy of this paper, and showing the advancements of our thrifty little city. The organization of the Citizen's Bank took place only a few weeks ago, and work was rapidly pushed, resulting as above mentioned, which came much sooner than many outsiders had anticipated. The capital stock is $15,000, and was taken by some of our best citizens, which proves their faith in the present and the future business of this section, believing that time for the establishing of the third bank was justified by the volume of business now in sight. The officers are as follows: James H. Young, President, G. W. Robertson, Vice President, Jo Coffey, Cashier, W. A. Coffey Assistant Cashier, Jo Coffey Jr., Book-keeper, and the place of business is in the Page building on the corner opposite James Garnett's law office. The above mentioned gentlemen are so thoroughly known to the people of this country, as to need no indorsement from any one. The President and Vice President are successful men enjoying the confidence of all who know them. The Cashier, Assistant Cashier, and Book-keeper are experienced in this line of work and have as broad acquaintance as any people in this part of the State. For many years they did the banking business in this town, and have all along enjoyed the full and complete confidence of the people. This paper favors business expansion, and hopes that the Citizen's Bank may prosper, and aid in the developing of our town and community, and that the business of this part of the State will give us three strong, prosperous banks, indispensable for thrifty business conditions. To the old, the middle age and the youth, the first, the second and the third, we extend good will and wishes.

HORRIBLE DEATH.

A Four-Year Old Child So Badly Burned, Death Followed.

Last Friday afternoon, Elzy, a four-year old son of Mr. M. L. Burton, who lives in the Purdy country, was so horribly burned that death followed in a few hours. The lad was in a field with his father, the latter burning grass. After the grass had been set fire in a number of places, the father left his son, going across the field. He had been gone but a short time when the boy, not apprehending danger, set fire to the grass in other places. The wind was high and the fire spread rapidly, catching the boy. His clothes were soon consumed and his body fearfully burned. While the flames were wrapping the body of the infant, his mother, from a distance, discovered the horrible situation, and ran, almost frightened to death, to her child, but was too late to save him. The little fellow was carried to the house and Drs. Sallee and Cartwright called, but there was no relief, and death followed during the night. It is impossible to portray the anguish of the parents, who have the sympathy of the entire neighborhood.

The Recital to be given Friday evening at the Lindsay-Wilson by Misses Murrell and Rosenfield will display the rare talent of these young artists. Miss Murrell has only studied expression a short while, but she possesses marked ability. Her reading is marked by a keen intellectual conception, coupled with rare sentimental understanding. Her selections are always given in a sweet, natural manner that marks the true artist wherever found. Miss Rosenfield has made rapid improvement under Miss Penlands instruction. She has rare musical talent, and her technique is unusually good. Her friends are very much interested, inasmuch as this is Miss Rosenfield's first appearance before the public. The evening promises to be very profitable as well as entertaining.

Mr. Mose Wooten, of Sparksville, will open up a music store and machine office in Columbia and be ready to serve the people who are in need of Organs, pianos, sewing machines, desks and other things in his line, by April the first. Mr. Wooten has rented the front room in the News Office for his office and sample room, and will keep on display some excellent specimens of the various things he will have for sale and in storage room in this town. Mr. Wooten is an active stirring man and we trust that success may crown his efforts in this enterprise. Heretofore our people have been forced to buy musical instruments from outside agents at enormously high figures but now they can get them from a home man at inviting prices. Watch the News for his announcement.

LYON BUGGY CO., Campbellsville.

A representative of this paper visited the county jail last Friday with the view of getting a statement from Jodie Burbridge, who is charged with murdering Bill McClure on the 4th day of this month. The prisoner refused to talk about the crime, saying that he had not consulted his attorneys, and that he would be governed by their instructions. Upon being asked where he stayed the first night after the killing, said that he reached the home of Josh Taylor, in the Gradyville country, but he did not admit that he remained in Taylor's house over night. He further stated that he did not leave Adair county until Thursday night before he was arrested at Gallatin, Tenn., which was Monday forenoon of last week. Jodie remarked that he was feeling first rate, and was being well fed by jailer Tarter.

At a regular meeting of the Municipal Board of Columbia, held in the News office, last Saturday night, the following orders were made: A committee was appointed to secure a rock quarry and construct a bin and secure power to operate the crusher. The City Attorney was empowered to contract with Mr. Paul Asbill for a hydrant for fire protection. The reservoir will be located in the East corner of the public square and will hold 10,000 gallons of water, to be pumped in by a gasoline engine.

STRICKEN WITH PARALYSIS.

Mr. Vincent Dockery, one of Jamestown's best citizens, was stricken with paralysis last Saturday afternoon, and for several hours it was thought he could not recover. Sunday the physicians pronounced him better, and Monday morning he became conscious, and it is now believed that he will recover. Mr. Dockery has been Deputy Sheriff and Jailor, of Russell county, making a very efficient officer, and it is very gratifying to his friends generally, that the chances are favorable for his recovery, and that he will again be in the busy affairs of the county.

Quarterly meeting at the Methodist Church, beginning next Saturday, and will continue over Sunday.

ISAH TURNER DEAD.

Last Wednesday afternoon death ended the suffering of the subject of this notice. He was about fifty-eight years old, and had resided near Columbia for a trial in the Cumberland circuit court last week. The State was represented by Mr. Hollis Hurt, this place, Mr. J. C. Hutchinson, Glasgow, and County Attorney Hicks; the defense by Judge W. W. Jones, Columbia, and a number of other lawyers of the local bar. It took some time to secure a jury but, after it had been impaneled, the trial was rapidly pushed to completion, the jury rendering a verdict of not guilty, last Saturday afternoon. The Commonwealth introduced a number of witnesses; the defense none at all. Outcries manifested a great deal of interest.

ACQUITTED.

Dr. Oscar Keene, of Burcksville, who was charged with being implicated in the murder of James Skinner, which occurred several months ago, was given a trial in the Cumberland circuit court last week. The State was represented by Mr. Hollis Hurt, this place, Mr. J. C. Hutchinson, Glasgow, and County Attorney Hicks; the defense by Judge W. W. Jones, Columbia, and a number of other lawyers of the local bar. It took some time to secure a jury but, after it had been impaneled, the trial was rapidly pushed to completion, the jury rendering a verdict of not guilty, last Saturday afternoon. The Commonwealth introduced a number of witnesses; the defense none at all. Outcries manifested a great deal of interest.

SCAGGS MURDER CASE.

The case of Jeff Scaggs, indicted in the Green Circuit Court for the killing of John Lee, was brought up at Greensburg Thursday after a jury had been impaneled. The trial had proceeded with the introduction of a part of the evidence for the Commonwealth when Thos. Morrison, one of the jurors, received a telephone message that his father was dying. Judge Thurman excused him from the jury and thereupon discharged the rest and continued the case until next term of court.

NEW CURE FOR SNAKE BITE.

This paper notes with deep regret that a number of persons are dying from the bite or rattlesnakes in different sections of Texas. Most all cases are young children, and in a good many instances they are bitten on the hand or foot. In such case the following remedy is said to be a good antidote for the rattler's bite, providing it is used immediately after being bitten. Take a pan or bowl and pour in enough kerosene oil to cover the wound. It will draw the poison out immediately, and in the course of a few minutes turn perfectly green. Then pour out the oil and refill the bowl, being careful to put in enough oil to completely cover the wound. Leave the injured member in the oil as long as the oil turns green. Then put on a poultice of plain table salt and saturate thoroughly with oil. Keep this up for about an hour and there is scarcely any danger of fatal results. Cut this out and preserve for future reference.—Merkel Mail.

Feed food of good quality to hens and cast aside the idea that they are able and willing to live upon almost anything, no matter what its condition. Hens, like hogs, will eat unfit food when compelled to, but in both cases the food is fed with a loss to the owner and the quicker the farmers become aware of such fact the sooner will eggs and pork become more profitable.

The difference in an egg laid by plump, healthy hen, fed upon good, wholesome food, and one laid by a thin, poorly fed hen can be readily determined by an expert and is invariably appreciated by one accustomed to eggs of good quality.

OWENSVILLE, IND.

Writing letters is an up-hill business to me, but as the News comes to my papa I enjoy reading it very much, and sometimes think a letter from this place would be of interest to my Kentucky friends. I have been here a year last August and I like Indiana very much. The weather is very bad now and has been for some few days. The roads are almost impassible in this part.

We have very nice schools and churches here. We take an examination every two months which I think are very good. Our school will close April 6th. We have had seven months of school this term. We will only have five months vacation.

I will close hoping to see some letters from my Old Kentucky friends.

Yours very truly,
DONA WALTERS.

A PROBLEM.

Miss Pearl Hindman, of Gradyville, sends us the following problem to be answered through The News:

A gentleman courted a young lady, and as their birthdays happened together they agreed to make that their wedding day. On the day of their marriage it happened that the gentleman's age was just twice that of the lady's that is, as 2 to 1. After they had lived together 30 years the gentleman observed that the lady's age drew nearer to his and that his was only in such proportion to hers as 1 to 1 3-7. Thirty years after this he found their ages to be as 2 to 1 3-5; at which time they both died.

I demand their several ages at the day of their marriage and on that of their deaths; also the reason why the lady's age, which was continually gaining upon that of her husband, should, notwithstanding, be never able to overtake it.

AN INVITATION.

Where you bred in Old Kentucky,
Where the sweet magnolias bloom;
Where we're planning a reunion,
Where for you there still is room?
If you was bred in Old Kentucky
I believe that you are true,
And I'll be found at the reunion
And would like to meet with you.

Where you bred in Old Kentucky
Where the purest waters flow,
Where the beech and yellow poplar
And the famous bluegrass grow?
If you was bred in Old Kentucky
Aren't you coming back in June,
To spend one week with friends and loved ones,
And to sing Steve Foster's tune.

Where you bred in Old Kentucky
Where Abe Lincoln first did play,
Where his rival friend—Jeff Davis,
First observed the dawning day?
If you was bred in Old Kentucky
Will you come back this one time
To see the land of early childhood?
May we find you here in line?

Where you bred in Old Kentucky
Where the coward is unknown;
Was the land of lovely ladies
Once in time your native home?
If you was bred in Old Kentucky
We now welcome you once more
To this land of peace and plenty
Where you lived in days of yore.

Where you bred in Old Kentucky
Where the finest horses roam
Did you come to this fair Eden
Once a time to find a home?
If you have lived in Old Kentucky
You are now invited too,
For many friends of yours will be here
And we'd like to meet with you.

Where you bred in Old Kentucky:
Did you come here once to stay?
Like our martyred Governor—Goebel,
And the famous Henry Clay,
All who have lived in Old Kentucky
Are requested now to come;
Come husbands, wives, come sons, come daughters!

To your "Old Kentucky Home."
If you was bred in Old Kentucky,
Or have called this state your home,
Let us all strike hands together
In our "Old Kentucky Home."
If you have lived in Old Kentucky,
Try to your old home to be true,
And I'll be found at the reunion
And have hopes of meeting you.

WHO WAS THE LOSER.

A banker going home for his dinner saw a $10 bill on the curbstone. He picked it up and took the number home in order to find the owner. While at home his wife remarked that the butcher had sent a bill amounting to $10. The only money he had with him was the bill he had found, which he gave to her and she paid the butcher. The butcher paid it to the farmer for a calf and the farmer paid it to a merchant, who in turn paid it to a washwoman, and she, owing the banker a note of ten dollars, went to the bank and paid the note. The banker recognized the bill as the one he had found, and which, up to that time had paid $50 of debt.

On careful investigation he discovered that this bill was counterfeit. Now will some of our friends tell us what has been lost in this transaction, and by whom?

LOFTY BUILDINGS OF NEW YORK.

Lower Broadway will have a skyscraper 39 feet taller than the Washington monument. It rises five hundred and fifty-five feet from the ground.

The Singer building on the northwest corner at liberty street will be enlarged, and from its center will rise a 40-story tower to a height of 593.23 feet. The four succeeding stories will form a cone, crowned with cupola and flagstaff.

Steel will form the skeleton of the tower. The facades will be ornamental brick and limestone. A great central bay window will extend from the eleventh to the 36th story with double windows and a row of 4 single windows on each side at each floor. The tower will contain a floor area of 150,000 square feet. It will have four elevators.

In addition to the tower, the fourteen-story Singer building and eleven-story Bourne building will be removed into a fifteen-story structure, with an increased plot area on each side, which will make the frontages 122-10 1-2 feet on Broadway and 290.07 1-4 on Liberty street. The cost is estimated at $1,500,000 in plans filed by the architect, Ernest Flagg.

The new Singer building will be owned by the Singer Manufacturing Company, of which Frederick E. Bourne is president. The next highest New York structure will be the 40-story tower of Gen. Howard Carroll's Railroad and Iron Exchange, on West street from Albany to Cedar street, which will rise 404 feet.

The head of Diana on Madison Square Garden tower is 322 feet above the street. The Metropolitan Life Insurance Company is planning to build a tower on the site of Dr. Parkhurst's old church at Madison avenue and Twenty-fourth street, as a part of its great building, with a dome toward which Diana will have to raise her eyes.

The tower of the Park Row building is 382 feet high. The extreme height of the Pulitzer building is 375 feet.

TILMAN A WHISKY EXPERT.

Senator Foraker, while debating the pure food bill, was getting warm on the subject of fusel oil in whiskey. He has submitted to several interruptions and his patience was about exhausted when Senator Tilman asked him a question. The Ohio man replied somewhat pettishly, whereupon Tilman said: "I was head bar-keeper down in South Carolina when the dispensary system was inaugurated, and I know what I am talking about."

Mr. Foraker allowed him to go on, and in five minutes the southerner amply made good his boast and had shown that he was the best posted man in the senate on the making of whiskey, and had silenced everybody. Foraker included: "I am not much of a shark on the taste of whiskey, but I know all about the making of it," he ended triumphantly, and no one could say him nay.

The date for the Tennessee State Fair has been set and will be from October 8th to 18th, inclusive, in Nashville. Many plans were recently considered at a meeting of the executive committee, by which the management expect to make extensive preparations for the event both in the way of displays and in the building. A committee was given full power to act in making such improvements as are necessary before the spring race meeting. It is understood that machinery, horticulture and dairy buildings will be erected before the fall exhibition.

Few Australians Here.

There are only a few Australians distributed throughout the United States, and their number is so small that in most of the official bulletins they come under the head of "unclassified."

There are in New York city less than 500 Australians, and the majority of them are Australians "in name only," having been born in Australia during the temporary residence of their parents. One such case is that of Mme. Melba, the prima donna, who was born in Melbourne, Australia, in 1866, though her home is in England.

The only city in the country in which there is any considerable number of Australians in San Francisco, in which there are about 1,000. Chicago has some 300, and Oakland, a suburb of San Francisco, 250. Once every year the Australians in New York City assemble for fraternal meeting, and it is found usually that the larger number of those present are traveling Australians.

A tradesman wishing to have a telephone put in his house, but his aged mother vigorously protested against the idea.

"Robert," she said, "if you bring that dreadful thing in here I will never close my eyes for fear that it may break out and sweep us all into eternity and us not be any wiser."

He tried to persuade her that it was a most harmless instrument. But she said: "No, no, look at the thousands—aye, millions—of poor hindooes it killed last autumn."

"Why," exclaimed he, "that wasn't a telephone, mother, that was a typhoon."

But the timid old lady raised her spectacles and looking at him over the rims thereof said: "You needn't try to make a fool of me Robert, I, perhaps, don't know much but I do know that the typhoon is the emperor of Japan."

Then her son gave it up as a hopeless job.

PROVERBS OF WALL STREET.

He that hath pity upon the poor lendeth to the Lord, but the security is non-negotiable.

A good name is to be chosen rather than great riches but, fortunately for the problem of selection, "a good name" is usually good collateral.

Blessed are the poor for they've nothing to lose.

Wisdom is better than rubies, and copper stocks are not always pure water.

As an ox goeth to the slaughter so a lamb to Wall Street.

A wise son maketh a glad father unless he bucks him from the other side of the market.

The borrower is the servant of the lender but this doesn't affect the quotations on "call loans."

He that maketh haste to be rich shall not be innocent, and usually remains poor.

Whoso diggett a ditch shall fall therein; similar is the fate of him that constructs a "corner."

Put not your trust in (merchant) prices until you have consulted their commercial rating.

A word spoken in good season, how good it is; especially when it is "Sell" spoken to your broker.—Puck.

Starving To Death.

Because her stomach was so weakened by useless drugging that she could not eat, Mrs. Mary H. Walters, of St. Clair St., Columbus, O., was literally starving to death. She writes: "My stomach was so weak from useless drugs that I could not eat, and my nerves were wrecked that I could not sleep; and not before I was given up to die was I induced to try Electric Bitters: with the wonderful result that improvement began at once, and a complete cure followed." Best health tonic on earth. Soc. Guaranteed by T. E. Paull, druggist.

REFORM THE BOGUS REFORMER.

Whatever outcome the political weather, which clothes the politicians round like a frog, may pretend and ultimately produce, it is easy to see that old things have passed away and that new things are at hand.

The spirit of commercialized politics has struck a snag. The insurance revelations, which have given such a black eye to high finance, are likely to prove still more far-reaching. The railways will have to draw in their horns a bit. Assuredly the gray wolves of the senate are coming to grief and Boodle and bossism in the great centers of population will have to go. The arousing of the municipal spirit is one of the most salutary signs of the time. Free elections and a fair count of votes will everywhere become the shibboleth of good citizens and patriotic men.

The bogus reformer in particular needs to be sent to the rear. The malignant speculator in civic righteousness, who prances round on the high horse of morality and virtue in public, whilst hand-in-glove with the grafter behind the scenes, needs to be unmasked.—[Louisville Courier-Journal.

The Breath Of Life

It's a significant fact that the strongest animal of its size, the gorilla, also has the largest lungs. Powerful lungs means powerful creatures. How to keep the breathing organs right should be man's chiefest study. Like thousands of others, Mrs. Ora A. Stephens, of Fort Williams, O., has learned how to do this. She writes: "Three bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery stopped my cough of two years and cured me of what my friend thought consumption. It's grand for throat and lung troubles." Guaranteed by T. E. Paull, druggist. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

CHAS. S. HARRIS, Editor

Democratic newspaper devoted to the interests of the city of Columbia and the people of Adair and adjacent counties.

Entered at the Columbia Postoffice as second-class mail matter.

WED., MARCH 28, 1906.

The first issue of The News was November 3d, 1897. So the 9th year will close November 3, 1906. There were nearly 700 who received the 1st issue and these we designate our charter members. Many of them have paid up for the 9th year, some are in arrears only for one year while others have been less thoughtful of our pressing needs and have dropped a little further behind. To all our charter members we tender this proposition: Come pay up for the 9th year and we will date you up to January 1st, 1907. The time from November 3d to January 1st is given you. Without notice of this we have been marking up everyone of our first subscribers who have paid for the 9th year. This proposition made to run to April 15th, after that date the regular order will be carried out. It is your privilege to date your paper up to the first of the year and it affords us pleasure to give the time to a faithful, paying subscriber who has been with the paper from its beginning.

Remember the date April 15.

One of the most important steps to be taken to advance the growth and prosperity of Columbia is that of water works. This paper has called attention to this matter many times but up to date no favorable action has been taken. Many of our citizens realize the worth of water works. They see the pressing needs of an ample supply of water; they know that insurance rates are burdensome, in some instances exceeding the legal rate of interests, and even in the best buildings the owners must pay from 2 to 3 per cent. All this money goes out of our community annually and yet the rate is not above the risk and we drift along waiting, as it were, for a blaze to sweep the business portion of the town or destroy the beautiful and comfortable homes away from the square. We have suggested that a company be formed and put in water, but the company does not form. We now suggest that the town be game and wise enough to brace up to the situation, vote for a sufficient amount of bonds to put in a good supply of water, protect the town from fire and permit the people to have the conveniences of water, as they may choose to use it. A bonded debt for such a plant, in our judgment, is the only fair way for the town to secure the blessings of water. It can be shown that such a move is not detrimental but a blessing to the present owners of property. It can be shown that such an investment will yield enough revenue to pay for itself within 20 years, based on a fair and average patronage, compared to other towns of like size. To be plain and to the point, the News favors bonding the town for the purpose of water works and protection from fire and will suggest no other reasons why this should be done. The Council has its last meeting on a tank to be erected in the south-east corner of the square, but this, at best, can only give feeble protection to property on the square and to no other part of the town. It is the time to take this important and advanced step in the growth of Columbia and the Council can put it to the front, but it will take the voters to endorse it and make it effective. If interested in bettering public conditions in Columbia, in keeping up values and maintaining substantial growth, then take the above suggestion and do some figuring before you make up your mind.

Last Friday evening the people of Campbellsville held a meeting and put up $10,000.00 for the purpose of building a large school to be under the control of the Russell Creek Association. Twenty thousand dollars will be needed to make this proposition a success, as we understand, and since Campbellsville has put up one-half of it, it is expected that the people of Taylor county will give $5,000 and the rest of the district give the other $5,000. This is a fair proposition and the Baptist union of Taylor county ought to put up the amount without a grumble. Just whether it will be done can not now be stated, and whether Taylor county will, outside of Campbellsville, put up the amount asked and expected is also hedged in with doubt. There is not a single reason why they should not do it but often the unexpected happens. At any rate the only safe plan for the Campbellsville people to secure the school is to put up and keep putting up until the contract is let for its building. Should the people of Campbellsville put up the entire amount they would then make money out of the proposition. It is a move of far more value to the business interests of this city and its property owners than to the Baptist of Southern Kentucky. It is a move, if successful, that will bring many good citizens within its border, give vim, vigor and volume of business over present conditions and inaugurate a period of unequalled growth in property values. To be plain, it will give new life and prove the most important step yet taken in the history of that town. No enterprising or public spirited citizen interested in the expansion of business or values in that section should withhold liberal aid in securing the school. They will be paid back more than four fold within a reasonable time. Denominational lines should not act as a bar, but every man, woman and child should see the good to follow such an enterprise and then act to secure it.

GOOD ROADS... MORE BRIDGES

Mr. J. W. Patterson, of Bliss, says: "Our roads are in a very bad condition and something permanent must be done to improve them. I have never seen a rock crusher, but I have seen the rock after having been crushed, and doubtless they will do the work. With stone to follow the grader our public highways would soon be in good condition, in my judgment. I am willing to pay my part of the tax."

Dr. U. L. Taylor speaks thusly: "I am constantly traveling over the county and I desire to say that the roads are in a wretched condition. I want the Fiscal Court to purchase machinery to crush rock and the rock placed upon the grades. In my judgment should this be done the highways would be permanently improved. I also favor bridges at all crossings that become pass fording. I am not a large taxpayer, but will cheerfully pay my part."

Mr. Frank W. Miller, ex-Sheriff of the county, says he is very anxious that a bridge be built at Nuttville. He says that the crossing of the county is very unsafe and that it is necessary to have a bridge built at that place. DOUBLE WEDDING.

Prominent Adair County Couples Married at Jamestown.

There was a double wedding at the residence of Judge H. H. Dunbar, of Jamestown, the 18th, the contracting parties being Mr. E. V. Miller, a prominent merchant of Crocus, this county, and Miss Lena Powell, a daughter of the late Geo. O. Powell, and Mr. R. O. Young and Miss Emma Strange, also of Adair county. The parties are all well connected and their friends are numerous. May peace, happiness and prosperity crown all their efforts, as they enter upon this new relation. Mr. Miller is well-known in Columbia and his former associates desire to extend their congratulations to himself and bride. Mr. Young is a mill-man by profession and Mrs. Miller and Mrs. Young have been prominent school teachers.

If you don't buy from us we both lose money. LYON BUGGY CO.

DEDICATION.

On the second Sunday, the 8th of April, Providence, near Stapp Spring, will be dedicated. Rev. J. S. Bow, of Louisville, will preach the dedicatory sermon. This church was built and equipped by Mr. J. S. Stapp and there is not a dollar of indebtedness against it, so there will not be any collection as is usually the case on such occasions. At that time and place, however, Rev. Bow, who is the Corresponding Secretary for the State Board of Missions, will ask the people to give what they may feel disposed to do for the spread of the gospel. Mr. Bow is a Minister of high standing in the State—a man of great force, and doing a great work for the Baptist cause.

Mr. Stapp looks forward to this dedication with much pleasure, as he has been able to build the house and furnish it without calling on those who may be present to enjoy the services. We trust that a large crowd will be present to show their respect to a man whose liberality and good endeavors have built and given to that community a good house of worship and whose strong Baptist sentiment has led up to such a noble work.

Mr. Bow will arrive on Saturday, the 17th, and will preach at Providence that day. On that night he will conduct services at Liberty Church. On Sunday Providence will be dedicated and that night he will preach at Zion.

Jordan Peacock---The Greatest Horse

In Kentucky

JORDAN PEACOCK will make the present season at Gradyville, Kentucky, and will serve mares at $15 to insure a living colt one week old. If any mare should lose a colt by carelessness or rough treatment then the season is due. Jordan Peacock has sired more high priced colts than any horse in Kentucky. Cotton and mules have their ups and downs but The Peacocks are Always Up—The Horse Buyers are always Looking for Peacocks, and pay from two to three times as much for them as they do any others. Last Fall his Suckling Colts Sold from $100.00 to $125.00. Flowers, Bros. sold a 2-year-old mare for $825.00 a 4-year-old gelding sold March 8, in a pair for $225.00. Did you ever know of any other horses in this part of the State that sold for such prices? When you breed to Jordan you are going to get a good Colt and one that's ready money as soon as it hits the ground. There have been some men that have sold their colts as soon as they bred the mares. Now if you want to raise the best, bring your mares to Jordan Peacock.

CAPTAIN PEACOCK, A 3-YEAR-OLD STALLION

By Jordan Peacock and Dam by Colonel Tom will make the season for $10 to insure. Captain Peacock is the best prospect I have ever seen. He has been shown at the Columbia Fair from a suckling colt up, under halter, single and double, and has won the Blue every time and has defeated some of the best age horses shown at the Fair. Bring your mares to my Horses and you are sure to get a colt and a good one.

I WILL STAND TWO JACKS AT $5. AND $7. to insure a mare in foal. Money is due in all cases when the mare is traded or leaves the neighborhood. All care will be taken to prevent accidents, but should any occur I will not be responsible. Grass at 50 cents per week or grain fed at cost. Thanking the people for past patronage and soliciting a continuance of same, I am respectfully,

BRAIN LEAKS.

Self respect begets self-confidence.

Salvation is free but it costs money to keep it.

Wretchedness is very often caused by having all you want.

We rather pity the man who never builds an occasional castle in Spain.

Every dog has his day, but we hope the "yellow dog" in politics has had his.

There is nothing quite so superfluous as the father of the bride on the wedding day.

The man who boasts of being the "boss" of his family is usually a physical bully and a moral coward.

The most valuable lesson in life is hard to designate, but learning to do without is entitled to consideration.

A good way to dull your wits is to hunt up people who will always agree with you, and associate only with them.

Some of the greatest sorrows in life have been the result of getting just what we sought after so diligently.

One of the greatest pleasures you can give a convalescent is to sit and sympathize with him while he tells you how sick he was.

The worst bore in the world is the man who interrupts your story about the bright sayings of your children to tell you of the bright sayings of his children.

The hardest task a country woman has after moving to the city is to overcome the feeling of lonesomeness that comes when she finds she can not talk over the back fence with her near neighbors.—Commoner.

Build The Sanatorium.

The Governor's signature of the bill empowering the Fiscal Court of Jefferson county to levy a tax of from one-half to two and a half cents for the maintenance of a sanatorium for consumptives should mean the beginning of work on the building within the next three months. The Kentucky Tuberculosis Association, through whose instrumentality the bill was passed, has collected $6,000 of the $25,000 needed to erect the building and purchase the necessary grounds. All that is required to give the county a sanatorium that will save Louisville 200 human lives a year and that will give to its citizens some measure of protection against a grave and steadily increasing danger, is the sum of $16,000. There are men in Louisville who can easily give the whole of that amount, or at least, a large part of it. It is probable that some of them will make individual contributions that will decrease considerably the financial difficulties in the way of the association. But it is an open question if it would not be well for the association to put the matter before the rich and poor of Louisville alike so that all may have the privilege of giving what they can to aid in a movement which every citizen of Louisville, whether he appreciates it or not, has direct personal concern.—Louisville Times.

Orders Disobeyed.

The orders of general health have been disobeyed, when you feel under the weather, weak, tired, irritable, and suffer from headache, constipation, biliousness, etc. The only sure cure, safe and permanent cure for this condition is Dr. Caldwell's (Laxative) Syrup Pepsin. It has a gentle action all its own, superior to that of pills, powders, and cathartic waters. Try it. Sold by Dr. J. M. Page, of Columbia and Page & Moore, of Cave Valley, at 50c and $1. Money back if it fails.

COMMON SENSE.

It is asserted by many politicians that the prosperity of our country is the legitimate result of the protective tariff. To argue that a tax or a tariff on articles of consumption can benefit the consumer and produce prosperity, is something that a man of common sense can not understand. What then has produced the prosperity of our country, its farmers, its laborers, its consumers and producers?

It is admitted that plenty of money increases the price of all articles of agriculture and manufacture as well as the price of labor. This, we have got in spite of the demonetization of silver and the adoption of the gold standard. Hence, we have prosperity as the result, which always follows an increase of the circulating medium. When the gold standard was adopted by Congress the miners, with a view of making money, commenced digging gold ore all over the world, which our Government coins for them into money without charge; and, as a consequence, nine hundred million dollars has been added to the money circulation in gold in the last six years. Of this amount at least one-third ($300,000,000) has gone into the circulation of the United States. Again, the bondholders, thinking that the demonetization of silver would make money scarce and high-priced, deposited their bonds with the Secretary of the Treasury and had hundreds of national banks established, and their issue was made money by the stamp of the Government and put into circulation, thus adding to the money of the United States at least two hundred million dollars, which, added to the gold make an increase of our circulating medium of at least five hundred million dollars in the last six years, raising the per capita circulation about one-third, which has produced our present prosperity in spite of the gold standard and in spite of the tariff.

And now the money power will have to seek other legislation for relief. Already they are seeking to cancel and destroy by Congressional legislation our green back money yet remaining in circulation, about $350,000,000, and we may expect it will not be long until they will seek to limit the coinage of gold.

COMING SPRING FASHIONS.

That narrow pointed shoes will be worn this spring.

That the short "pony" coat is likely to be overdone.

That a green hat will be the toposh of fashion.

That a touch of black velvet will adorn many spring frocks.

That the flirtatious bolero has a new and apparently everlasting lease on life.

That not to own at least one embroidered line frock is to be shamefully unprovided for.

That even more white[is] to be worn than last year.

That the proper finish for a tailored shirt waist is one of those stiff embroidered linen collars.

That there's no use living if the "princess" style does not become you.

That you want to get light cloth spats to match your spring frock.

That the quaint mushroom is one of the prettiest hats that will crown the head of the 1906 summer maiden.—[Philadelphia Bulletin.]

BREATH SMELT NATURAL.

Curious experiences were told at the Spiritualists' convention in Chicago last week. Supreme president, Harrison D. Barrett, told this one:

"A fraud medium who I knew in Minneapolis years ago told a story on himself," he said, yesterday. "He was to give a seance under a strict test conditions at a certain place, and had no opportunity to take his trolley into the cabinet with him, or to hire anyone to bring it. He decided to have no manifestations and claimed that an honest failure was half-proof of his honesty."

"He went into the cabinet, and as his shoes were hurting, removed them for comfort's sake. A pillow had been placed on the chair on which he was to sit, and in moving it the pillow-slip came off. His feet chanced to move the curtains at the same time. The people on the outside were, of course, waiting for manifestations. 'There, there!' they exclaimed. 'The spirits are coming. The curtains are moving!'"

These words gave the medium an idea. Seizing the pillow-slip, he drew it on one foot, and thrust it through the curtains. The lights, of course, had been lowered, so that the room was very dim. "There's a spirit! See! It's all in white!" exclaimed the sitters. He moved his foot as if bowing to all the company in turn, and then held it steady.

"Is it for me? For me?" the question ran all around the room. Finally one timid little widow asked "is it for me?" The pretender nodded his foot three times. "May I come to the cabinet?" she asked. "Yes," nodded the foot. She approached, awestruck, and asked, in trembling tones: "Charlie, is it you-u-u?" "Yes" seemed to say the foot. Question after question, answered always by "yes" or "no," followed, and the weeping woman was ready to take her seat. "May I kiss you, dear, before I go back?" she asked, in a choking voice. "Yes," nodded the foot. The widow stooped over, kissed the pillow-cased foot, and retired, sobbing as if her heart would break, to her seat.

"Did you recognize it as Charlie?" asked a sympathetic neighbor. "Oh, yes, indeed!" she replied, between sobs. "His breath smelled just as it always did when I kissed him in life?"

GRADYVILLE.

We are having some rain. Plenty of snow last Friday. Some people say tobacco plants are killed. L. C. Hindman has set out a peach orchard. Mr. Jesse Breeding was in our town last Saturday. C. S. Bell is paying 5c per lb. for stock hog. Clay Wolford, of Columbia, was here last week looking after the sheriff's business. W. L. Grady is sowing a large amount of grass seed this spring. W. L. Sharp sold his crop of tobacco last week to C. O. Moss for a fancy price. Geo. H. Nell was at Greensburg last week. Geo. Flowers, of Columbia, spent a few days the first of the week with his sister, Mrs. C. O. Moss. Mr. H. A. Moss, of Greensburg, passed through here Friday on his return from Burkesville. Mr. James Gilpin, of Sparks-ville, was here one day last week looking after a good horse or two. Mr. J. D. Walker, of Columbia, spent a day or so on his farm near this place, last week looking after some farm work. Uncle Charlie Yates has one of the finest Peacock colts that ever come down the pike. Mr. C. O. Moss was transacting business in the Keltner community last Thursday. Rev. G. Y. Wilson filled his appointments last Sunday at Pleasant Ridge and Maple Hill to a large audience. John Lowe, Will Lyon and Strong Hill, three well known commercial men, were shaking hands with our merchants last week. Rev. James P. Scruggs, of Columbia, filled his regular appointments here last Saturday and Sunday with very interesting discourses. Mr. Lee Akin, who left here several years ago for Oklahoma, is visiting relatives and friends in this section. Lee is wonderfully pleased with Oklahoma and says he would not live here again for the best farm on the ridge. Ex-Judge T. A. Murrell, of Columbia, spent last Friday in our city taking evidence in the pension claim of the children of the late C. W. Sparks, of Weed. Judge says he thinks proof is about completed and the claim will be allowed in the near future. Gradyville will certainly be well represented in New Mexico. G. T. Flowers, Geo. E. Nell, Jno. Denny and Hurshel Shirrell started for that place last Monday with a view of locating and investing in that section. We trust they will all be pleased and their trip will be a financial blessing to them. Squire Leon Shuffit held his first court last Tuesday and some very important cases came up. We don't know of a farmer, taking his age into consideration, who is doing more work than uncle Geo. Flowers, of our town. Notwithstanding the ripe old age of 74 years, he steps around like some sixteen year old boy, and we see him from early morn until late in the afternoon with gash and tools. Born to the wife of D. A. Grady on the 19th, a 14 pound boy. Mother and child doing well. Mr. James Goff, of Burkesville, was in our midst a few days ago working insurance. We predict that Mr. Goff will make a success in his new line of business.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Bell, of our city, in their usual manner entertained quite a number of their friends last Thursday. The day was very pleasantly spent and will long be remembered by every one present, and especially the good dinner that was prepared for the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Walker are just in receipt of a letter from their son, Robert, of New Mexico, who had the misfortune of losing one of his limbs, stating that he was improving fast and it was only a question of a few days until he would be on the stage of action again. His parents are gratified to know that the affliction that was given him during his affliction could not have been better anywhere. The President of the Company that Robert was working for assured him that during the hours of his suffering and affliction that his time was going on with a nice salary attached—the same he was getting when he was on duty. Also stated to him there was a nice position with a handsome salary awaiting his recovery. There is no question but that Robert stood in with his people with whom he was employed. Sure we are glad to have such news from our Adair county boys, for we know they are all raised right and when they get old they will not depart.

The Cane Valley voting precinct has forty-one widow women. Eleven of them are drawing pensions, twenty-one own good little farms, and the remainder have occupations from which they are earning themselves a nice living and can have something for a rainy day. For kindness this bunch of ladies can not be beat in America they are loved by all, and will lend a helping hand at any time. We have one thing to regret that is, we can not exchange our old bachelors for widow women.

BLISS.

J. D. Lowe, a popular traveling salesman of Columbia was there Wednesday.

S. D. Crenshaw, a well-known veterinary surgeon was at this place Thursday.

Bruce Taylor, a well-known citizen of East Fork, and two sons were here Tuesday, on his homeward return from Glensfork.

Mud holes and miserable roads are much in evidence these wet days.

Mrs. C. M. Herriford, who has been confined to her room for three months, is now able to be about, much to the delight of many people of this community.

T. R. Price, is at present in full touch of the outside world, he having of late, had a telephone put in his residence.

This long wet and cold spell has caused the farmers in general to fall behind with their work in the way of sowing oats, and turning corn ground. When the favorable change should come on sooner or later, they will most likely have to work hard for beavers.

Whit Coomer, had for a few days of last week been limping around his shop suffering with some of Job's legacy. Some M. D's declared that boils were worth $5.00 each. So grin and bear it, Whit.

COMMISSIONER'S SALE

Of Valuable Timber and Farm Lands in Adair and Russell Counties, Kentucky, Adair Circuit Court of Kentucky.

N. B. MILLER, Executor of J. P. Miller, Etc., Plaintiffs.

SARAH A. MILLER, Etc., Defendants.

By virtue of a Judgment and Order of Sale of the Adair Circuit Court rendered at the September term, 1905, in the above styled action, the undersigned Master Commissioner and Special Commissioner of said Court will proceed to offer for sale to the highest and best bidder, at Public Auction, at the Court House door in Columbia, Adair County, Kentucky, on MONDAY, MAY 21st, 1906, about the hour of 1 P. M. (being the first day of Circuit Court) on a Credit of Six and Nine months, equal installments, the Eight Tracts of land mentioned and described in said Judgment, and owned by the late J. P. Miller at his death, and described as follows:

FIRST TRACT: 130 acres lying and being in Russell County, Ky., on the waters of Crocus Creek, and where H. C. Hadley now resides. About 115 acres of rich land in a high state of cultivation, and 15 acres of fine poplar and oak timber, and the best ridge land in Russell County.

SECOND TRACT: 83 acres adjoining the first tract on the north. About 70 acres in the finest quality of poplar and oak timber, and 13 acres in cultivation. No buildings. The timber on this tract has been counted and estimated, and there are about 450 poplar trees averaging 31 inches in diameter, and about 500 oak trees averaging 26 inches, and much other valuable timber. These two tracts are known as the Todd land, and will be sold separately, and then together, and the highest bid accepted.

THIRD TRACT: 108 acres adjoining the second tract, mostly all cleared, and in cultivation, and known as to Kelsey or Rambeau place. A good house and out buildings.

FOURTH TRACT: 42 acres in Adair County on the waters of Crocus Creek, and 1 mile west of Miller's Store, and known as the John Grant place.

FIFTH TRACT: 37½ acres in Adair County on the waters of Crocus Creek, and known as the O. G. Walkup place, and in cultivation.

SIXTH TRACT: 194 acres in Russell County in the Jackman

Bottom on Cumberland River, and known as the Burrell Campbell place. A good home.

SEVENTH TRACT: 170 acres, less 5 acres sold to Bunch, in Adair and Russell Counties on the waters of Sand Lick, and known as the Nathaniel Morgan land, and just below the famous Sulphur Spring. There is much valuable poplar, oak and hickory timber on this land. Fifty dollars was refused for one poplar tree now standing on said land. One hundred and sixty-five acres will be sold.

EIGHTH TRACT: 71 acres in Russell County on the waters of Crocus Creek, adjoining the 3rd tract, and the same formerly owned by Abraham Aaron, and where Mrs. M. A. Sullivan now resides, and will be sold subject to the Homestead right of said M. A. Sullivan and her children. Reference is made to the Judgment and Order of Sale for a more particular description of these lands. Rents for 1906, will be reserved. The purchasers will be required to give bonds with good surety, bearing six per cent. interest from date until paid, payable to N. B. Miller, Special Commissioner, for such uses as the court may hereafter direct, and having the force and effect of a Judgment if not paid at maturity. A lien will be retained on the land as additional security. Taxes for 1906 will be paid by the Estate, and the purchasers must list and pay taxes for 1907. Purchasers must be prepared to comply with these terms immediately.

E. T. BAKER, Master Com. N. B. MILLER, Special Com.

For further information write to Montgomery & Montgomery, Attorneys, Columbia, Ky.

I will also offer for sale at the same time and place on the same terms the VALUABLE TIMBER AND FARM LANDS belonging to Mrs. Sarah A. Miller (widow of J. P. Miller) which descended to her from the McClure estate, and lying and being in Russell County, Ky., on the waters of Greasy and Clifty creeks, of Cumberland river, and about

2 to 3 miles from the mouth of Greasy creek, from which place the timber can be run to Nashville or Cincinnati, via Burnside, at small cost, as labor is cheap in that locality. 50 cents per day gets the best laborers. There are good mill and factory sites on the lands. These lands have been owned by Mrs. Miller and her kinsmen for the last 70 years and have been carefully guarded and never before the market. This is a voluntary sale and made on account of the infirmities of age and the desire of the owner to become free from the care of timber lands. Title is perfect and no encumbrance. Taxes for 1906 will be paid by the owner, and purchasers must list and pay taxes for 1907. There are 1025 acres of these lands, and will be sold in three tracts separately, and then all together, and the greatest amount accepted.

FIRST TRACT: 490 acres, more or less, on the waters of Greasy Creek, and known as the Mulberry Bottom, about 390 acres in timber of the finest quality, and 100 acres of rich farming land in Creek bottoms, and rents for half the grain. Thousands of barrels of corn have been sold from this farm. It is the 'Egypt' of Russell County.

SECOND TRACT: 384 acres on the waters of Clifty Creek, and known as the Kean tract, about 320 acres in timber of the best quality, and 64 acres cleared. Here is to be found the Giant Oaks, and great abundance. Right of way to graveyard reserved.

THIRD TRACT: 152 acres on the waters of Clifty Creek, and known as the Mill tract, about 82 acres in fine timber of all kinds, and 70 cleared.

These lands have been surveyed recently and timber on each tract counted and estimated by careful business men, and the result of the count is given below. The name of the timber, number of trees and diameter in inches from 20 inches and up, and from 12 to 19 inches inclusive, are given. Surveys, plots and estimates in detail can be seen by calling on A. H. Ballard, Columbia, Ky.

All parties interested are requested to go upon the lands and count the timber for themselves and verify these estimates. A. H. Ballard, Columbia, Ky., and A. A. Miller, Crocus, Ky., will go with parties and show the lands and boundaries, and either of them can be reached by telephone and daily mail. This is undoubtedly the largest and finest body of timber land to be found in Southern Kentucky, and never before on the market. It has attracted the attention of lumber men for years and will pay any man to see it. This will be the biggest sale of lands that ever took place in Adair and Russell Counties. Within the last year less than 600 acres of Adair County land sold to the highest bidder for $38,000. N. B. MILLER, Attorney, Springfield, Mo.
